

Incorporated by Royal Charter

Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies

A Recognized Independent
Centre of the University of Oxford

PRESS RELEASE

AZMAN HASHIM FELLOWSHIP

The Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies, a Recognised Independent Centre of the University of Oxford established by Royal Charter under the patronage of HRH The Prince of Wales, is delighted to announce the establishment of a new Fellowship, to be known as the Azman Hashim Fellowship.

The Azman Hashim Fellowship will enable a senior scholar, at professorial level, to be appointed at the Centre and is endowed in perpetuity, thanks to the generosity of the financier and philanthropist, Tan Sri Azman Hashim. The Centre wishes to put on record its appreciation and gratitude for this generous benefaction, which will enable and support generations of research and scholarship in the years ahead.

The Azman Hashim Fellowship will be awarded to a scholar studying any aspect of contemporary Muslim societies and will be an important addition to the Centre's academic programmes in Oxford, which include a number of research and teaching fellowships, in addition to its scholarship and visiting fellowship programmes and other academic activities in Oxford, nationally and internationally.

Applications to the Azman Hashim Fellowship will be invited in due course in accordance with the academic procedures of the Centre and will be open to scholars from around the world.

For more information contact:

The Registrar

Tel +44 1865 278731 Fax +44 1865 248942

Email: richard.makepeace@oxcis.ac.uk Web: www.oxcis.ac.uk