*Book culture in the Arab world:
an illustrated herbal of the 13th century*

This lecture will examine a wonderfully illustrated herbal produced in Syria H. 642 (A.D. 1245). Representative of book production among intellectual circles of the Medieval Arab world, it sheds light on artistic collaboration and scholarly engagement with a major classical text.

Tuesday 23 February at 5:00 p.m.

This lecture will be held virtually, by ZOOM
