

Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies

An institution for the advanced study of Islam and the Muslim world

PRESS RELEASE

To mark the coronation of His Majesty King Charles III and Her Majesty Queen Camilla the Centre will fly the Union Flag from 5th to 8th May. The Prince of Wales Garden will also be open to the public over the weekend from 10am till 7pm.

The Centre will be represented at the Coronation of their Majesties on 6th May in Westminster Abbey. Centre members will also be among those attending the Coronation Concert on 7th May at the Windsor Castle.

Note:

His Majesty King Charles III, as Prince of Wales, has been the Patron of the Centre since 1993 and inaugurated its building in Oxford in 2017. He has also delivered two lectures under the Centre's auspices on 'Islam and the West' in 1993 and 'Islam and the Environment' in 2010.

For more information contact:

The Registrar

Tel +44 1865 278730 Fax +44 1865 248942 Email: richard.makepeace@oxcis.ac.uk

www.oxcis.ac.uk