KUWAIT LIBRARY
VISITORS' GUIDE

ABOUT US

The Kuwait Library holds, currently, a collection of over 50000 volumes in several languages. It provides researchers and students with a comprehensive range of material on Islam and the Muslim world. The Library's collection is reference-only. It is fully searchable on SOLO (location code 'ISL').

There are excellent photocopying, scanning, and printing facilities available on site. The Centre also provides an eduroam wireless connection as well as in-house guest Wi-Fi.

ENTRANCE

Readers should enter via the Porter's Lodge on Marston Road.

READER CARDS

The Library may be used by Bodleian Library card holders.

Non-University applicants should email a letter of recommendation from their relevant institution to the Librarian at: librarian@oxcis.ac.uk

LAYOUT OF THE LIBRARY

Lower Ground Floor

The Lower Ground Floor has secure lockers for the storage of personal belongings. (Bags, coats and umbrellas are not permitted in the Library.)

There is also a comfortable Common Room where readers can enjoy tea and coffee provided by the Centre.

Ground Floor

The collection is housed over the Upper and Lower Reading Rooms, accessible from the ground floor of the Centre.

Some areas of the library may only be accessed under supervision of the Library Staff.
