VISITING FELLOWSHIP IN ISLAMIC FINANCE

Applications are invited for a Visiting Fellowship at the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies, under a Scholar in Residence Programme in Islamic Finance, jointly supported by the Centre and the Securities Commission Malaysia.

Applicants must be specialists in Islamic Finance and/or a closely related discipline, preferably with practical experience of policy-making with an international or comparative component. Applicants must be able to demonstrate competence to conduct independent academic research.

The Visiting Fellow will be expected to conduct research on a topic of contemporary relevance to the field and to participate in a range of academic activities at Oxford. The tenure of the Visiting Fellowship is for one academic year (with candidates being considered for the year commencing October 2021).

The Visiting Fellow will have membership of the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies and enjoy full access to its facilities including shared office accommodation. A grant of £10,000 will be made to contribute to the Visiting Fellow's living, travel and incidental research expenses.

To apply, please visit the Visiting Fellowship section on our website:

Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies

The Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies was established in 1985. The Centre provides a meeting point for the Western and Islamic worlds of learning. At Oxford it contributes to the multi-disciplinary and cross-disciplinary study of the Muslim world. Beyond Oxford, its role is strengthened by an international network of academic contacts.

Further information about Visiting Fellowships and the Centre's other academic activities can be obtained from the Centre's website and from the Academic Office:
