

VISITING FELLOWSHIP IN THE HISTORY OF ISLAM IN SOUTH ASIA

Applications are invited for a Visiting Fellowship associated with the Centre's research project on Muslim social and intellectual history of South Asia, 13th-18th century. For more information on the project, please see:

<https://www.oxcis.ac.uk/the-atlas-project>

The successful candidate will normally be at a post-doctoral level. The Visiting Fellowship would be tenable for eight months from January 2025. It will carry a stipend of £8,000. A desk space in the Atlas Office, membership of the Common Room, and single residential accommodation will be provided.

To apply, please go to: <https://www.oxcis.ac.uk/form/visiting-fellowship-atlas-proj>
Shortlisted candidates will be interviewed online.

Closing date: 2 September 2024

