

The following seminars will be held online during Michaelmas Term 2020 on Wednesdays and Thursdays at 5.00 pm. To join a seminar please register on our website: <https://www.oxcis.ac.uk/>

Dr Yaqub Chaudhary

14 October

Cambridge Muslim College

AI: Simulation and Dissimulation

Professor Bernard Heykel

15 October

Princeton University

Saudi Arabia and the Rise and Fall of Political Islam

Dr Rory McCarthy

21 October

Durham University

Islamist Transformations after the Arab Uprisings: Tunisia's Ennahda Movement

Dr Fozia Bora

28 October

University of Leeds

Archives and Archival Sensibilities in Medieval Arabic Historiography

Dr Adam Hanieh

4 November

SOAS University of London

Money, Markets and Monarchies: The Gulf Cooperation Council and Political Economy of the Middle East

Dr Stephen H. Jones

11 November

University of Birmingham

Islam, liberalism and national identity: Lessons from British Islamic Institutions

Professor Christopher Melchert

18 November

University of Oxford

Counting Shaykhs in Hadith Collections

Professor Adam Osman

19 November

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Using Field Experiments to Learn about Religious Behavior

Dr Minlib Dallh

25 November

University of Oxford

Nana Asma'u (d. 1864): The Erudite Poet and Mystic of the Sokoto Caliphate

Professor Ahmet Kuru

2 December

San Diego State University

Book Talk: Islam, Authoritarianism, and Underdevelopment